Is Your Business a Success Story?

WYOMING - Why not, you could be the Small Business Administration's next success story. You could be recognized for your achievements in the small business world. The SBA Wyoming District Office features success stories on our website, in our monthly newsletter, entered into our Washington database open to the public, sends to all Wyoming news media and chambers. Small business success stories are selected by the district office, and are considered when they meet the following criteria:

1. Receive assistance from SBA or a resource partner, i.e., SCORE, Small Business Development Centers;
2. In business for a minimum of three years;
3. Allow SBA to feature your business for publication.

The SBA Wyoming District office selects a limited number of small businesses each fiscal year. If you would like our district office to consider your business for a small business success story, please contact our Public Information Officer, Sharon Nichols, at 307-261-6508 or email at Sharon.Nichols@sba.gov.
